Dear Mr. Nixon:

The Publications Review Board has completed its review of the final galley proofs of your manuscript entitled "Debriefing the President: The Interrogation of Saddam Hussein," submitted 10 October 2016. The Board determined that it contains no classified information and has no security objection to its publication.

If you add material to or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted include, but is not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, indexes, glossaries, maps, forwards, or afterwords.

The Board is always pleased to purchase a copy of books published by Agency employees. Please let us know when Debriefing the President: The Interrogation of Saddam Hussein is commercially available so we can add a copy to the Board's research library.

The Board appreciates your cooperation with prepublication review. Please do not hesitate to contact the Publications Review Board at (b)(3) CIAAct if you have any questions or if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,
